

Upper-right is better: high F_{max} at high coverage. Homology-transfer baselines sit at low coverage because they only score proteins with a qualifying hit, so their F_{max} describes a favourable subset rather than the full test set. Generated by `src/plot_benchmark.py` from `results/benchmark_metrics.csv`.