
Grouped bars show the mean with mean ± SD across five seeds. Exact test examples are printed in brackets; '*' marks n<10. Bins/panels without finite data are omitted; higher is better. Models are not stacked because performance scores are not additive.